Bank Motes Stolso--- $40,000 Lost

The Bank of Tennessee, as we learn from the Nashville Banner, recently ordered from its engraver a new set of bank notes, of various denominations, with red backs. The box containing these notes was received a few days ago, but none of them have yet been put into occupation. On Monday a ten dollar bill, red back, without signature, was presented at the counter of the Bank. It was a genuine note but as none had been issued suspiciously were aroused, and on examination of the contents of the box, which had not previously been opened at the Bank, disclosed the fact, that notes of the denomination of ten dollar, to the amount of $40,000, had been ab-The Bank of Tennessee, as we learn from fact, that notes of the denomination of tendollar, to the amount of $40,000, had been solvented. None of the other notes were disturbed. The box come from New York, in charge of Adam's & Cole Express, and it is thought that the notes were abstracted on the greamboat between this city and Nashville.—

The person who presented the note at the The person who presented the note at the Bank, stated that he obtained the note from a negro who had purchased goods from him to the amount of 85, and received $5, in change. The appearance of the negro indicated that he was a stemboat hand. The community should be on their guard against these notes The bank will not issue one of the ten dollat red backs unless the the whole 40,000 are
